Harrisburg, 8.—In the free colored cemetery in the suburbs are at least four layers of dead in the enclosure. The dead are only partially buried. Many are uncoffined, and dogs have been feasting on the dead for many years, and portions of the bodies being dragged to neighboring farm houses.

New York, 8.—The police captains of Brooklyn have been instructed not to interfere with the barbers next Sunday, unless they sell cigars, and not to permit Jews to do business. On the other hand, twelve Hebrews of New York have secured injunctions against the police restraining them from interfering with Sunday observance.

Parsons, Kan., 8.—The citizens gave a banquet to the founder of the town, Col. R. S. Stevens, who has been elected to congress in the thirty-third district of New York. He was builder of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad.

The Body Snatchers.

Philadelphia, 8.—The grave robbers, McNamee, Hillel, Leon Chew and Robert Chew, were arraigned to-day for further hearing. Twenty-five police officers were present to protect the prisoners. Dr. Forbes, demonstrator of anatomy at Jefferson college, testified he never thought he could be regarded as accessory to body snatchers because he never made an investigation into the manner in which the bodies were procured. The college was getting about 150 bodies a year. The students paid $10 each for a "ticket," and $1 each for every subject on which they operate. The prisoners were committed in default of $5,000 for the term.

Lynch Law.

Bastrop, La., 8.—On Wednesday night the jail doors were broken down by a body of indignant men, and Tom Robinson and Bill Cephas taken out and hanged. Public opinion is with the lynchers.
